

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
NASHVILLE DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CHRISTOPHER MOODY

Case No. 3:09-00240

CHIEF JUDGE HAYNES

PROPOSED AGREED ORDER FOR RESCHEDULING TRIAL

This Court, having been duly advised, and having conducted a hearing on the United States' Motion to Re-Schedule the trial in this case, hereby grants that motion, and re-sets ~~trial~~ ^{trial} to November 19, 2013. ^{See DIS No. 2457} The Court finds that period until that date to be excludable under the Speedy Trial Act. The end of justice in re-scheduling the trial outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant as a speedy trial. This trial is the result of a complex investigation, and the only two prosecutors knowledgeable about this investigation and the evidence are unavailable on the scheduled trial date due to their participation in a multi-defendant complex trial involving wiretap evidence that began on August 6, 2013. Therefore, denial of the request would unreasonable deny the United States continuity of counsel. See 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(7)(A), (B)(I), and (B)(iv).

It is so ordered this 17th day of August, 2013.

WILLIAM J. HAYNES
UNITED STATES CHIEF DISTRICT JUDGE
